

HOW MUCH RISK MAY I TAKE TO SAVE A LIFE? A HALACHIC ANALYSIS

SUNDAY,
MARCH 22, 2015
9:15 AM

LANDER COLLEGE
FOR MEN

75-31 150TH ST.,
4TH FLOOR
FLUSHING NY, 11367

“RISK MANAGEMENT:
HALACHIC GUIDELINES”

RABBI YONASON SACKS

ROSH HAYESHIVA BEIS MEDRASH L'TALMUD /
LANDER COLLEGE FOR MEN

Rabbi Yonason Sacks, Rosh HaYeshiva of Beis Medrash L'Talmud / Lander College for Men, is a leading posek and author of over 20 seforim. For the last quarter century, Rabbi Sacks has been a leading figure in harbatzos ha'Torah as a Rosh Yeshiva and Rebbe. He has been the Rav of Agudas Yisroel Bircas Yaakov in Passaic, NJ for more than 20 years.

“MEDICINE AND JEWISH LAW:
A RISK-BENEFIT ANALYSIS”

RABBI AARON E. GLATT, M.D.

COURSE DIRECTOR, MEDICAL HALACHA COURSE AT LANDER COLLEGE FOR MEN

Rabbi Aaron Glatt is currently the Associate Rabbi at Congregation Anshei Chesed, Hewlett, and Assistant to the Rabbi in the Young Israel of Woodmere. He was formerly the Executive Vice President / CAO at Mercy Medical Center and an Associate Dean at NY Medical College. Rabbi Glatt recently joined LCM as the Course Director for Medical Halacha Course, a requirement for all students in the pre-health professions.

LANDER COLLEGE
FOR MEN
A Division of Touro College

L'IYU NISHMAS Yosef Nissan Ben Yechezkel (Mr. Joseph Glatt)
and Esther Ettel Bas Zalman Yosef (Mrs. Ethel Korn).

SPONSORED BY The Center for Jewish Law and the Professions at the Lander College for Men and the Department of Community Programing

MEN AND WOMEN ARE INVITED

BREAKFAST WILL BE SERVED AT 8:45 AM

FOR MORE INFORMATION, Contact Yehuda
Goldin at YGoldin@student.touro.edu